

EV Group Scores Big with Eleventh Consecutive Triple Crown Win in TechInsights 2023 Customer Satisfaction Survey – June 30, 2023

The Other Side of TSMC's Chip In Story

On Earth Day 2023, three non-government organizations Green Peace, 350 Asia, and STAND.earth fired a proverbial shot across the bow of TSMC's perceived lack of progress on the net zero fronts. The primary complaint is that TSMC is not doing enough to get to net zero and that the company should work harder to increase the amount of renewable power they use in manufacturing. Greenpeace also showed up at TSMC's shareholder meeting to protest. Let us explore TSMC's side of the story.
